Volume License Transfer Form

If you have purchased a FileMaker software volume license within Europe, the Middle East, or Africa, and would like to transfer the license to a third party, you must complete this form in its entirety. Please Note: Education versions of FileMaker software are not transferable.

Part I: Transferor

I am the current licensee of the FileMaker Volume License identified below. I agree to transfer all of the software listed below (including media and printed materials, any upgrades, the End User License Agreement, and all license keys with respect to the product) to a new licensee identified below. I agree not to retain any copy of the software (including any installed copy). I understand that by signing and submitting this Volume License Transfer Form, I am relinquishing all rights to the product. Because this transfer is being completed on behalf of a company or other organizations, I represent and warrant that I have the authority to sign this transfer on behalf of the current registered licensee.

FileMaker permits the transfer of Volume Licenses in the following transactions only:
(Please check the corresponding box below and complete the form)

- Affiliate: An entity may transfer its right to use FileMaker software to its Affiliate. An Affiliate is another entity where at least 50.1% of its voting power is owned or controlled by the transferring entity or where at least 50.1% of the transferring entity's voting power is owned or controlled by the transferee
- Merger/Acquisition: An entity may transfer its right to use FileMaker software to the purchaser of all or substantially all of the capital stock of the transferor or all or substantially all of the assets of that portion of the transferor's business to which those licenses pertain.
- Outsource: A customer decides to outsource its operation, support and maintenance of its network to a third party ("Third Party Service Provider"), for the benefit of that customer. As part of the outsourcing, the customer transfers all of its right, title and interest to the assets, including certain FileMaker software and services, to the Third Party Service Provider solely for the purposes of providing services to customer.
- Name Change: An entity may change or modify its official business name. The appropriate information must be filled out below.
